DETAILED ACTION

Claim Objections

1. Claims 3 and 5 are objected to because of the following informalities:

In claim 3, line 2, it appears “support” should be changed to --supported--.

In claim 5, line 1, it appears --4-- should be inserted after “claim”.

Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

3. Claims 1, 2, 4, and 6 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Henderson et al. (US Pat. No. 5,088,752).

See the attached marked up drawing figures (cover sheet, sheets 5 and 9 of 10) depicting the claimed features.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

4. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Art Unit: 3651

5. Claims 3 and 5 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Henderson et al.

Henderson et al. Teaches the claimed invention as outline above. Henderson et al. further teaches sockets 90 that are capable of accepting some sort of upright leg as claimed (even though Henderson uses his sockets for another purpose). Henderson fails to teach his sockets on the beams that carry his rollers. It would have been an obvious matter of design choice as to the selection of a bracket or a socket of a roller conveyor, in Henderson's case, he chooses to have his socket movable and therefore it is not practical to have it on the beam which carries the roller. Furthermore, the mere selection of a location for a structural feature does not provide a patentable departure from that of Henderson et al.

Conclusion
